Residence Hall Overnight Guest Information

The California Lutheran University community assumes that each student who attends or visits the University possesses an earnest purpose; the ability to exercise mature judgment; the ability to act in a responsible manner; a well-developed concept of, and commitment to honor, morality, and integrity; and a respect for law and the rights of others. This assumption prevails unless a student negates it through misconduct.

The University adopts only such policies and procedures that seem necessary for the welfare of the educational community. Each student associated with California Lutheran University is expected to be familiar with and to follow all policies and procedures promulgated by the University. Failure to abide by the policies and procedures as outlined in the Standards of Conduct may result in disciplinary action and sanctions.

In the event that you are found in violation of a policy during your stay, a University Administrator will take appropriate measures to ensure your safety and that of the campus community. A copy of the documentation will be forwarded to the Dean of Admission and become part of your permanent record. If warranted, your parent or guardian will be notified. A copy of the entire standard of conduct is available to guests upon request. However, in the effort to make you aware of the standards prior to arriving on campus we have highlighted some policies below:

- It is our belief that the presence of alcohol or drugs on campus interferes with the mission of CLU and Residence Life; therefore, campus standards do not allow alcoholic beverages or drugs on campus.
- Smoking is not permitted in any building.
- CLU does not permit weapons of any kind on campus.
- CLU is not responsible for lost or stolen items.

As a guest on campus, you will be housed in a co-ed residence hall. To make your stay more comfortable, you may wish to bring a sleeping bag, pillow and towel.

In the event of an emergency during your stay here on campus, Campus Safety requires contact information & student health insurance information.
