

Faculty Meeting Minutes Monday, October 10, 2005

- The meeting was called to order at 4:03 P.M. with a quorum present.
- Nandra Perry led devotions.

Minutes

- The meeting minutes of September 12, 2005 were approved.

For What It's Worth

- Kristine Butcher read the essay "No Extra Credit for You," published recently in The Chronicle of Higher Education.

Administrative Report

- Interim Provost Joe Everson thanked faculty who participated in the Peacebuilding in a Global Era symposium. Michaela Reaves was recognized for her work with the Honor Society. Kristine Butcher and FADC members were commended for their work on the Housing Committee. Founder's Day will be on October 21; faculty is expected to robe and process. Faculty was encouraged to participate in the CLU Faculty Colleague Class Visitation Program by Thanksgiving.

Faculty Committee Reports

- Herb Gooch reported on the proposed honorary degree candidates. Information on the process and potential candidates was included in the faculty packet.
- Penny Cefola, Teaching and Learning Committee, presented information about the January faculty retreat and distributed a survey collected at the end of the meeting.

Faculty Discussion

- Luther Luedtke and Bob Allison updated faculty on the progress of the university's strategic planning process. The faculty then met in small discussion groups to give feedback regarding the plan.

Announcements:

- Founders Day is on October 21. Faculty will be expected to attend and process.
- Midterm grades are due back to the CAAR office on October 21.
- Faculty Friday will be held on October 28 at Tim Hengst's home at 8 PM. Halloween costumes are encouraged.
- CLU Athletic Association is raffling a BMW motorcycle on October 29. Tickets may be purchased from Tim Hengst.

Adjournment

- The meeting was adjourned at 5:22 P.M.
- Next meeting will be held on Monday, November 14, 2005.

