How to Read the Scores

Earning a score of 346 or higher for French, Spanish, and German and 400 or higher for Russian, will satisfy the CORE21 foreign language requirement at California Lutheran University. Additionally, a score of 281 or higher for French, Spanish, and German and 250 or higher for Russian, shows proficiency in second semester of foreign language.

A score of Sem1 indicates that student should enroll in a foreign language class at the 101 level (first semester level). A score of Sem2 indicates that it would be best for student to enroll in a foreign language class at the 102 level (second semester level).
